

Tuesday, March 24

Trip for lunch at Kenzie's, Kittery

Bus departs at 11:15 am

Interested in trying a new local restaurant? The Cage family opened up Kenzie's in mid-December and business has been going well! Some specialty items on their menu include a pulled short rib crostini with caramelized onions, goat cheese and port wine Bordelaise sauce, pistachio encrusted fish with lobster volute and holiday-stuffed chicken with roasted sweet potato, cranberry and gorgonzola stuffing. Let an Activities staff member know if you are interested in going!

Thursday, March 26

Monthly Birthday Party with music by Billy

Joe Lake, guitar and vocals

2:30 pm, Dickens

Join us as we celebrate residents born in March! Cupcakes and ice cream will be served.

Friday, March 27

Trip to the Maine Flower Show, Portland

Bus departs at 10:00 am

The Maine Flower Show, owned and produced by members of Maine's horticulture industry, is one of the biggest gardening and horticultural shows in the region. With a new location at Thompson's Point in Portland, Maine and new management as of 2017, the Maine Flower Show boasts more display gardens, more exhibits, more planting and outdoor living inspiration than any local show. The first 3 years of the show have averaged over 18,000 in paid attendance, plus an estimated additional 500 volunteers. 120-125 booths exhibit plants, hardscape, arbor related items, garden supplies, and all things relative to outdoor yard-scaping and living. Gardeners of all stripes enjoy this one-of-a-kind horticultural experience each year. Boxed lunches will be provided.

Monday, March 30

Short Story Group meeting

11:15 am, Tennyson Living Room

All are welcome to sit in for our monthly short story discussion. This month's story is Appointment With Love by Sulamith Ish-Kishor.

You Be the Judge

3:15 pm, Tennyson

Join us for a new program called You be the Judge. How it works: an Activities staff member will read real court cases, dating from 1791 to present years. They will supply residents with the facts of the case and let the residents debate. Then they will reveal the outcome of the real-life situation. It can be quite fun realizing how we would all handle these court cases!

Additional Notices

The Dickens and Garden Resident Council meeting will take place on Wednesday, March 4 at 3:15 pm in the Dickens Dining Room.

The Tennyson Resident Council meeting will take place on Thursday, March 5 at 11:00 am in the Tennyson Living Room.

Please see the Activities staff with any suggestions for trips or in-house programs!

Questions? Comments? Contact Jennifer Smith, Activities Director at (207) 363-5116 ext. 1304

Mondays, March 2 and 16

TED Talks

11:00 am, Tennyson Living Room

All are welcome to join in and view a TED talk video followed by a discussion. TED is a nonprofit organization devoted to spreading ideas, usually in the form of short, powerful talks (18 minutes or less). TED began in 1984 at a conference where Technology, Entertainment and Design converged, and today covers almost all topics — from science to business to global issues — in more than 100 languages. Chosen TED Talks with their description will be advertised on the daily sheet.

Tuesday, March 3

Bus to Vote for the Presidential Primary and Special Referendum

Bus departs at 10:00 am and again at 1:00 pm

Please let an Activities staff member know if you would like to vote in person at the York High School.

Friday, March 6

Trip for lunch at the New England House, Wells

Bus departs at 11:00 am

Sign up with Activities staff if you are interested in having a delicious lunch at the New England House. The restaurant takes great pride in preparing their food with the best quality ingredients possible to make all of their homemade recipes. They serve only the freshest seafood available, including Maine fish, lobster, scallops and clams. All of their seafood is wild caught and not farm raised.

Fridays, March 6 and 20

Bible Study with Reverend Gough

1:30 pm, Inn Library

All residents are welcome to attend our bible study group that takes place every other

Friday. The group is led by Inn resident Reverend Wilbert Gough.

Wednesday, March 11

Music Program: Gentlefolk

2:30 pm, Dickens

Marya Danihel, mezzo-soprano and Jim Prendergast, guitarist, transport listeners with refined renditions of songs from England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales. They love to present songs that are notable for their emotional range and unforgettable melodies. Anyone who attended grammar school in the 1930s and 40s is likely to recognize most of the songs. Some of them are indeed gentle, with tunes of piercing sweetness (Danny Boy). Others have a martial swing (Charlie He's My Darling).

Tuesday, March 17

Information Session for York's new Committee for Veterans' Affairs

11:00 am, GLR

Join chairman Barry Waddell to learn about the new Committee for Veterans' Affairs in York. Waddell plans to inform residents about this new committee and will speak on some of their new initiatives and events. They are planning a Vietnam Veteran Service on March 29 and are also now running and organizing the Memorial Day Parade. All are welcome to come learn about this new committee in town.

Monday, March 23

Netflix Documentary: Night on Earth, episode 1: Moonlit Plains

3:15 pm, Tennyson Living Room

Night on Earth is a British nature documentary series made for Netflix. The series follows animals that are active during the night using state of the art, low-light camera technology. Episode 1 synopsis: From the African savanna to the Peruvian desert, lives of predators and prey are closely linked to the moon's cycles and the opportunities they bring.